A man giving his name as Walter Sutton, a victim of the drug habit, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail this morning by Judge Craig for petty larceny. Sutton stole a number of tools from the Silver Avenue laundry stable and sold them to a South First street second hand store. The goods were found soon after they were misappropriated and Sutton was arrested by Chief of Police McMillin, and confessed the theft. He needed money to pay drugs for his appetite and could not resist the temptation, he told the police.

OFFICER GUIVERA ARRESTED EAGLE

The police department was called upon this morning to make a very unusual arrest. A large bald eagle perched itself on the roof of the residence of Deputy United States Marshal Harry Cooper, corner of New York and Twelfth, and was patiently waiting for Mrs. Cooper to let her chickens out into the yard so that it could have a spring for breakfast. Mrs. Cooper endeavored to "shoo" it away, but it sat on its perch and mildly blinked its eyes at her frantic motions. Mr. Cooper was not at home so Mrs. Cooper telephoned the police. Officer Guivera was detailed on the case, and after some difficulty succeeded in making the arrest. The eagle met the officer in the same nonchalant way it regarded Mrs. Cooper, but the officer drew his club and unseated it with one well directed blow. Its legs were tied quicker than the quickest tie was put on a steel at Cheyenne last week, and the prisoner was deposited, bound and gagged, in the third cell at the city jail. And there it remains waiting the coming of its owner. The bird shows that it has been in captivity for some time, and probably escaped from its cage last night.

FUNERAL OF MRS. LEEKLEY.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Leekley, whose death occurred at Berkeley, Calif., last Tuesday as the result of injuries sustained in a street car accident, was held from the family residence at 315 South Edith street this afternoon. The funeral was largely attended by many of the old friends of Mrs. Leekley, who had made this city her home for more than twenty years.

The train on which the body was brought to this city was delayed 24 hours, which was the cause of the postponement of the funeral from yesterday afternoon to this afternoon. The interment was made at Fairview cemetery.
